

I am a twenty-four year old female who is seeking a roommate of about the same age. I like to stay active with activities such as tennis, walking, swimming, and working out occasionally on an elliptical or treadmill. I like to have friends over to visit, but I also like some quiet time to myself. I like to go to church. I like to have my family come visit me, as we are a close family. I don't like to keep my music up loud and will usually wear headphones. I like to be in bed by 11 and don't usually get up too late. I would like a roommate who will share the chores with me. My roommate needs to be on a self-directed plan so we can share Community Hab workers.
